

August 5, 2011

Greetings!

This email is a reminder that applications for the HOPWA Getting to Work Employment Initiative are due Monday, August 8, 2011 at 8:00 pm Eastern.

What is the Getting to Work Initiative?

Getting to Work is a year-long initiative offered to HOPWA grantees and project sponsors with an interest in increasing employment-related opportunities and outcomes for clients. The focus of Getting to Work will be to build the capacity of participants to provide employment services to clients directly and through community partnerships.

This initiative will include a combination of training, technical assistance, agency self-assessment, work planning and peer learning to increase individual agency capacity, resulting in improved access to employment and services for clients. Examples of trainings include:

- Employment Program Development and Design
- Vocational Assessment and Career Planning
- Job Search, Placement, and Employer Engagement
- Employment and Impact on Benefits

Go to our Getting to Work webpage for additional information, to view the application, FAQs, or to watch the July webinar on the Initiative.

Thank you very much. We look forward to your participation.

Rachel Kogan and Elizabeth Malloy

Mark Putnam and Nick Codd

Victory Programs, Inc.

Building Changes

This Initiative is made possible by the support of the Office of HIV/AIDS Housing, US Department of Housing and Urban Development.

