

To: HOPWA grantees and project sponsors:

Please join us online on October 11th at 2:00p.m. Eastern Time (1p.m. Central; 12:00 Mountain; 11:00a.m. Pacific; 10:00a.m. Alaska) for a live webinar.

Topic: An Overview of the Online Training Course – Financial Management for HOPWA Grantees and Project Sponsors

The Office of HIV/AIDS Housing (OHH) unveiled an online, self-paced Financial Management training course on HUD's Homelessness Resource Exchange (HRE). The purpose of this webinar is to increase HOPWA grantee and project sponsor awareness of the importance of the training course, provide an overview of the curriculum, describe the benefits of the course, and demonstrate how to access and navigate the modules and related materials.

Registration: To register for the webinar, click here:

<https://www3.gotomeeting.com/register/454920478>. After you register, you will receive the webinar URL and call-in information.

For those who are unable to participate in the October 11th webinar, the same information will also be presented in a live webinar on October 26th at 2:00p.m. Eastern Time. More details about the 2nd webinar are forthcoming.

Questions about the webinar? Email Amy Palilonis at Amy.L.Palilonis@hud.gov.

NOTE: OHH is also pleased to share with you a new searchable bibliography of peer-reviewed journal articles related to HIV/AIDS and housing. This database came out of the HUD co-sponsored North American Housing and HIV/AIDS Research Summit VI, and consists of over 300 recent articles that can be searched by key word and filtered by Topic, Population and/or Region. Details for each article include: abstract, full citation and web links to the full text for articles available open source. Click here to access the database.