

USICH Announces Save the Date:
Opening Doors* Anniversary Stakeholder Call
June 22nd, 3:30-4:30pm EDT

Labor Secretary Hilda Solis, Chair of the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH) invites you to attend a stakeholder conference call on June 22, 2011 to mark the one year anniversary of the release of Opening Doors: Federal Strategic Plan to End Homelessness.

Opening Doors is the first ever comprehensive federal plan to prevent and end homelessness. Since its release USICH and its federal partners have been working to implement the Plan. Unprecedented collaboration has occurred throughout all levels of government and with private, non-profit, and faith based organizations as we work to end homelessness in America. The Council agencies have both individually and collectively advanced the strategies contained in the Plan.

Special Assistant to the President for Urban Affairs, Derek Douglas, and USICH Executive Director, Barbara Poppe, will join Secretary Solis to discuss the roles the federal government and Administration have played over the first year of Opening Doors. Key leaders will share their thoughts on the impact of plan implementation to date and what is needed as we move forward into year two of implementation.

The conference call will be interactive and USICH will answer submitted questions at the end of the call. We look forward to you joining us.
